THE MEMPHIS DAILY APPEAL.

BY JOHN S. C. HOGAN & CO. MEMPHIS, TENN., SATURDAY, FEBRUARY 8, 1868. VOLUME XVIII.—NUMBER 158

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

PUBLISHED DAILY & WEEKLY
—BY—
JOHN S. C. HOGAN & CO.

TO ADVERTISERS AND PATRONS OF THE APPEAL.

We take pleasure in announcing to the advertising patrons of the APPEAL a reduction in our rates of advertising. We make this reduction in justice to the small advertiser, who has heretofore been taxed disproportionately to the large ones.

After about one year's effort to bring the APPEAL back to its old post ion as the leading and most widely circulated paper in the State, we have succeeded.

We feel justified in saying, that so far as circulation is concerned, there is no better advertising medium in the city or State. We call attention to our terms for advertising. They have been adopted by us without consulting any other journal; and they will not be departed from. They are now no higher than those of the journals of Louisville, lower than those of New Orleans; and as low as is compatible with the existence of a respectable newspaper in Memphis.

On advertisements for three months or more, ten per cent. will be deducted from the above rates.

Advertisements to occupy fixed places, will be charged fifty per cent. over regular rates.

Advertisements inserted at intervals, to be charged twenty per cent. on regular rates.

Notices in Brevier, twenty cents per line.

Advertisements in the WEEKLY, one dollar per square for each insertion.

All advertisements, except for established business houses, with whom we have running accounts, must be paid for in advance.

Marriage and Death notices, fifty cents. Charitable and Religious notices, ten cents per line.

All bills due on first insertion of advertisement. All bills with regular advertisers to be rendered monthly.

By the system now adopted, and from which the APPEAL will in no case depart, we shall be able to advertise lower for prompt men, and not to tax them with the losses which newspaper publishers generally suffer by advertising on credit.

Political notices must hereafter be paid for: and all special notices will be charged for at the regular price, except when they are strictly voluntary and complimentary.

Communications of a Personal nature will be charged for at the same rates as local notices

MASONIC INTELLIGENCE.

MASONIC JURISPRUDENCE.
OHIO.

The Laws of—respecting Initiations.—16. No religious test shall ever be required of any applicant for the benefits of Masonry, other than a steadfast belief in the existence and perfection of Deity; and no Lodge under this jurisdiction shall receive any candidate without the acknowledgment of such belief.

17. No Lodge shall confer the first three degrees in Masonry for a less sum than twenty dollars. A unanimous vote must be had in favor of the applicant for each degree. The fee for initiation or membership shall in all cases accompany the petition.

18. No Lodge shall initiate into the mysteries of the craft any person whomsoever, without being first satisfied by a test or otherwise, that the candidate has not made application to some other Lodge and been rejected; and if it shall appear that he has been rejected, then the Lodge shall not initiate such person without the unanimous consent of the rejecting Lodge.

19 Previous to advancement all candidates shall be examined in open Lodge in the degree which they have taken, and be found to possess at least a knowledge of that degree.

20. The degrees of Fellow Craft and Master Mason shall be conferred only by the Lodge initiating, unless by consent of such Lodge.

21. No Lodge under the jurisdiction of this Grand Lodge shall confer the first section of the F. A. degree, or the first section of the F. C. degree, or the first and second sections of the M. M. degree upon more than one candidate at the same time.

OF MEMBERSHIP.

22 No Lodge shall receive into membership a Mason from any other Lodge until he shall produce satisfactory evidence that he has paid all dues to the Lodge of which he was last a member.

23. No one can become a member of a subordinate Lodge, or be entitled to any vote therein, until he has received the third degree in Masonry.

24 A brother receiving the degree of Master Mason, becomes a member of the Lodge conferring it.

25. Membership in a Lodge, from first to last, is voluntary on the part of the member. He may, for reasons satisfactory to himself, by consent of the Lodge, and without thereby subjecting himself to Masonic discipline, withdraw his membership; and until he additionally, voluntarily renounces all claim to Masonic consideration.

26. Lodges may deny to unaffiliated Masons this privilege of visiting and Masonic charity, the privilege of joining in public procession and Masonic burial.

27. Joining in application for a new Lodge does not sever the membership of the petitioners, who are members of the consenting and recommending Lodges, from the Lodge or Lodges of which they were members. It is incumbent on such Lodges to collect dues from such petitioning members to the time when the new Lodge is fully constituted under its charter, at which time membership ceases in the elder and commences in the new Lodge.

28. Masons not members of the consenting or recommending Lodges who join in a petition for a new Lodge, must hold regular demits, which must accompany the petition.

29. The W. M. of a Lodge under dispensation shall not be amenable to discipline by the chartered Lodge of which he is a member, but shall be to the Grand Lodge or Grand Master.

30. Master Masons, members of the Lodge only, shall be permitted to vote upon the admission of candidates and members.

BULWER'S ODE TO FREEMASONRY.

Masonic Editor Courier:

Can you inform me where I can find the lines—

"A king can make a gartered knight,
And breathe a new a nother;
But he, with all his skill and might,
Can never make a Brother,"

and who was the author?

PHI KAPPA.

ANSWER.—Of course we can. They were written by Sir Edward Bulwer Lytton, and are to be found in the following

ODE TO FREEMASONRY.

The world may rail at Masonry,
And let it be the square and line;
We'll follow with complacency
The Master's great design.
And though our sisters frown, and though
We're by our mothers chided,
Would they our worth and hearts but know,
We would not be derided.

And though the kings of earth unite
Our temple to assail,
While attacked with truth, and love, and light,
O'er them we shall prevail.
A cloud may veil the face of day,
But native smiles at noon
That shrewd adventure—bold essay!—
To quench the glorious sun!

A king can make a gartered knight,
And breathe a new a nother;
But he, with all his skill and might,
Can never make a Brother.
Then ponder on the Mystic Art,
Freemasonry, is thine!
To power it mingle the savage heart
With brother-love divine.

Dr. Randall says he should not dare to winter sheep without salt, especially when any kind of disease is prevalent. The best way is to give sheep constant access to it allowing their instincts to guide them, after they become habituated to its free use.

Solitude bears the same relation to the mind that sleep does to the body. It affords it the necessary opportunities for repose and recovery. But if you are bored from morning until midnight with visiting loafers, how can you have repose and get recreation!

Agriculture has assumed a new phase in Nebraska. The farmers are all planting forests, which will bless future generations, if not the present one.

One hundred and fifty thousand dollars' worth of dried fruit—apples, peaches, plums and blackberries—have been sent North from Forsyth county, North Carolina, this season.

A little boy, son of Mr. Webb of Marengo, Illinois, recently fell backward into a boiler of hot water and severely scalded his shoulders. Some kind of oil was applied and the little sufferer placed in bed. Shortly afterward another oil was rubbed on his shoulders over the first. The little fellow soon screamed piteously, and smoke was observed arising from the bed. An examination resulted in the discovery that the sheets were on fire and that the boy's back was literally roasted. Indeed, so severe were his injuries, that he died in a few hours. Physicians who were called gave the opinion that mixed oil applied to the first burn had produced a spontaneous combustion, which had ignited the sheets.

THE Albany Constitutional Convention continues in existence, but is doing nothing useful. The New York papers of all parties are making unlimited game of it, and one of them says: "The lapidary will have but a brief duty of record on its grave stone—Born 1867; died 1868, of exhaustion of speech."

greeting, assuring them that the kind expressions of commendation so frequently received from them have been as gratefully regarded as the thirsty and weary traveler appreciates a well-spring of cooling water in the dry and arid desert.

GRAND COUNCIL.

Ill. Jno. McClelland, Grand Master, recommends in his address to the last Grand Council of Tennessee, that the Grand Council take into consideration the propriety of turning over to the Subordinate Chapters the authority to confer the Royal and Select degrees, and report their work to the Grand Chapter. This, of course, would abolish the future meetings of this Grand Body, and render it entirely unnecessary that it should meet again.

A committee was appointed to consider the proposition. Comp. Fuller was re-elected Grand Recorder.

New Masonic Temple at Philadelphia.

The Masons of Philadelphia have purchased a lot on the corner of Broad and Filbert streets, on which they intend to erect a new Masonic hall. The contract for the building has already been awarded, and the contractor guarantees to lay the corner stone next St. John's day, and finish the edifice five years hence, at a cost of three-fourths of a million of dollars. The new hall will be of granite, and in the Norman style. The four sides of the building will be of granite, the only difference in the design being in the front on Broad street, which, it is intended, will present one of the most magnificent features of that thoroughfare.

diet in forming bones and muscle, bad economy, unless for market. Oats, peas and beans, promote growth and strength; and for this reason should form the grain feed for growing animals. Oxen and horses can be made to perform much more labor and cows will yield more and richer milk, on a generous diet of corn meal, but, in the long run, it affects their health. The horse needs richer food than the ox, and will bear it; yet corn, under all circumstances is not the grain.—Some of the ill effects of a course of high feeding the horse upon corn, are seen in a dull eye, dark skin, and rough coat. To roadsters, particularly in warm weather, when liable to be overheated by exertion, it gives a tendency to greater heat, and to laying on fat; when a diet is made simply to repair waste muscle, oats, dry hay, and carrots are quite the appropriate feed for fast driving horses. For draught horses, whose motions are slow, the bad effects of meal are not as apparent; still a mixture of other grain ground with corn, is much better.

CARROTS FOR HORSES.

The Cincinnati Enquirer has been informed by the proprietor of one of the most extensive livery stables in that city that he has an experience of several years in feeding the common yellow carrot to his horses, and that he considers them the most valuable article for winter feed that he has ever used. He considers a peck of carrots and a peck of oats worth more for a horse than a bushel of oats alone; and for horses that are not constantly employed the carrots alone are far preferable to oats. He would purchase carrots for his horses in perference to oats, even if they cost the same by the bushel; the prices of carrots, however, is greater than that of oats, but the benefits derived make up for this. His horses eat the carrots with a far better relish than the oats; so much so as if a peck of each are turned into a manger, they will eat all the carrots before they taste the oats. When fed constantly on carrots, a horse will drink scarcely a pail of water in a week. The culture of carrots is recommended to our farmers as worthy of their attention.

SALMON IN NEW ENGLAND.

The Boston Journal says: "The experiment which has been undertaken by the New Hampshire Commissioners of River Fisheries, of stocking the Connecticut river with salmon, has so far succeeded well. Of the impregnated eggs deposited at the Cold Spring hatching works, at Charlestown, N. H., over 99 19-20 per cent. have hatched, and have become healthy and very lively young salmon. It is the intention of the Commissioners to rear them artificially till they are ready to go to the sea, which will be a year from next spring. In the fall of that year, 1869, they will return, seeking the sources of the river, and will then weigh, it is estimated, from three and a half to ten pounds, which weight they will soon double and quadruple. It is hoped, before the return of the salmon, that all obstructions at the mills on the Connecticut river will be removed, and that nothing will prevent them from ascending the river as high as they like. If the present plans are carried out in regard to stocking this river, a million or more of young salmon will be put in every year, and of such a size that they can easily go to the sea and return; and judging from data obtained from experiments tried in English waters, we are authorized to suppose that by this means the productive wealth of the Connecticut river will be increased millions of dollars annually, as any one can easily see for himself by calculating the value of a million salmon of ten or twenty pounds weight.

"Great credit is due in this matter to Dr. Fletcher, of Concord, who, out of several that made the attempt, was the only one who succeeded in procuring salmon spawn for the New England rivers. It should be known, also, that the merit of this undertaking, of obtaining salmon eggs for these rivers, is due to the New Hampshire commissioners, acting independently, and not to the New England commissioners generally, as has been before stated. Should the promises of the present be only one-half fulfilled, the time will come before long when salmon will be a common article of food, and together with the vast quantities of shad which are expected in a few years from our rivers, will very perceptibly reduce the cost of living in New England, and enable the poor man to have every day on his table food that has long ranked with us among expensive luxuries."

GOOD COFFEE.

It is doubted whether one family in a dozen knows what really "good coffee" is. Never buy your coffee ground, but grind it yourself, immediately before using it; keep your coffee pot, whatever kind you may use, wiped clean and dry inside; a damp tea or coffee pot acquires a musty flavor that spoils the best tea or coffee. The cheapest, and perhaps the best coffee pots are those made on the French plan, called cafetieres. If you have not one of these, adopt the following plan: Put your freshly ground coffee into the coffee pot, previously made warm, and pour upon it water actually boiling; set the pot by the side of the fire for a few seconds, but do not let it boil up; then pour a cupful out and return it back again to the pot

PATENT MEDICINES.

MRS. JACKSON'S
Queen Bess Complexion Wash.

THE following certificates, selected from hundreds in the possession of the proprietress, are confidently submitted to the public:

MRS. WOLCOTT'S CERTIFICATE.
QUINCY, Ill., November 5, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON, Dear Madam—It is with pleasure that I certify to you, that seeing one of your circulars, which contained certificates and indorsements from the best physicians and the highest certified authorities of the United States, cert fying that your oils for the complexion and teeth were purely the oils, extracts and essences of flowers, and they warrant it when used according to directions to cure the worst and most difficult cases of nursing sore mouth, canker of the stomach, hoarseness, dyspepsia. For scrofulous disorders, when used both internally and externally, it has no equal. Dear Madam, I was induced, as an artificially blonde, to get fifteen months, having the whooping cough for several months, accompanied with what the doctors call white canker, her mouth and throat being terribly ulcerated, and I having tried everything for its relief I could think of, all to no purpose, I bought one bottle of your oil for the complexion, called "Queen Bess," went according to the directions, did not use quite one bottle, and I am most happy to state to you that she is cured my child. She is now as well and hearty as ever she was in her life. I give you this, my certificate, hoping you will publish it, that thousands of others who may be afflicted with any of the above affections may also use a bottle of your "Queen Bess," for I feel sure they will find immediate relief.

Yours respectfully,
MRS. GEO. WOLCOTT,
Jersey street, bet. Sixth and Seventh.

MRS. WM. R. COLLINS' CERTIFICATE.
HANNIBAL, Mo., August 22, 1866.

MRS. JACKSON. Dear Madam—I am most happy to inform you that after having suffered more than three years with what some physicians call nursing sore mouth, or canker of the mouth and throat, I tried various remedies, but found nothing to do me any good until I heard of your oils for the complexion and teeth, called "Queen Bess." I bought one bottle, went according to directions, and am truly thankful to say I have found a permanent cure. Hoping you will publish this, that other poor sufferers may be benefitted by it, I remain,
Yours respectfully,
MRS. WM. B. COLLINS.

OUR CITY FINANCES.

The Mayor's Special Committee of Citizen "Property Holders" have now been in consultation for about three weeks, and no definite result has yet been attained. We cannot say who is to blame for this fiasco, because of the extreme reticence which has been observed in the matter. Meanwhile, we do know that the wheels of the city government have been stopped. No hospital nurse, no laborer has been able to realize the wages of hard labor in the service of the city. Even the pauper account, which is a material estimate in such times as are now upon us, and in such weather as we have had for the past month, has been suspended. The salaries of the firemen have been cut down, with no money in the Treasury, to pay them even the diminished amount to which they have been reduced. These are stubborn facts, and it is pertinent to inquire whether some remedy cannot be found, outside of the dispensatory of the Committee, called together by the Acting Mayor. Our people have waited long and patiently for a proper solution of this perplexing problem. The "property holders" have failed to meet the demands of the crisis. The city Treasury is bankrupt—there is nothing with which to pay the liabilities of the city. What is to be done? There are but three ways by which a party, either individual or corporate, can immediately meet its liabilities and avoid bankruptcy. These are:

1st. To dispose of its assets, at any sacrifice.

2d. To borrow the money with which to meet its indebtedness.

3d. To negotiate an extension of its liabilities.

In the case of the city of Memphis, we think it will be agreed by every one that the first remedy is out of the question. The property of the city of Memphis would now scarcely realize 20 cents on the dollar, and would, if sold, be totally inadequate to meet its indebtedness. The second remedy is quite as unavailable as the first. Neither local nor foreign capitalists have any money to invest in an enterprise which promises to reimburse them so poorly as the securities of our city, whose government has heretofore been so badly managed. What then are we to do? Manifestly, and as a dernier resort, to fall back upon the last remedy mentioned, and manfully and honestly to ask the creditors of the city for an extension of its credit, as a measure alike and mutually to the interest of the creditor and the debtor. The floating debt must be disposed of first. This consists principally of City Treasury Warrants, payable on demand, and which are not worth, on the market, more than, say, 45 cents. It is evident that the payment of these warrants must be postponed in some way. The most astute lawyer can not devise a way by which a compulsory postponement can be made.

How, then, can this desirable result be reached, by arrangment between the parties? We answer only by consulting the reciprocal interest of each. It must be made manifest that the interest of both creditor and debtor must be subserved by a postponement. We submit the following suggestion as meeting the case. Let the city authorities propose to the holders of warrants that they consent to surrender them upon the Mayor giving the notes of the city for the amount thus cancelled, payable in six, twelve and eighteen months. This would give the city the taxable receipts of two corporate years, from which to meet her outstanding due debt. Her receipts each year are, in round numbers, about one million of dollars. Her expenditures might be easily reduced to one half of this amount if paid in currency. The employees of the city would be only too happy to make this exchange. This would leave half a million each year by which to wipe out the floating liabilities of the city, and in two years, or eighteen months, the notes given for the warrants could all be met and the city government carried on without incurring any additional indebtedness. It may be objected to this plan that all the holders of city warrants would not surrender their warrants, but would hold on to them, anticipating the inevitable advance in their value. Suppose they did, who would be hurt by the arrangement?

If her warrants were enhanced in value the city would certainly gain by it. The holder would gain by it, because he could hypothecate his notes to better advantage than he could his warrants. And the party, who had surrendered his warrants, would gain, because he would certainly realize the amount of the face of his warrant within six, twelve and eighteen months; whereas if he were to throw his warrant upon the market, he could not get more than 45 cents on the dollar for it now; and if nothing should be done to revive the sinking credit of the city, would fall to thirty cents on the dollar, perhaps lower. But the warrants would be taken up thus, in a large measure, if proper efforts were used by the city officers to induce the warrant holders to thus invest. There would be no wrong in the city thus postponing the payment of her indebtedness, at a time when she cannot pay, in any event. If it were possible to pay, it would be wrong. But she cannot pay now, and to take her warrants for taxes is to pay and to bankrupt herself. She might therefore give preference to her notes, thus taken, in payment of taxes over her warrants not thus converted into notes. She would thus be only giving a preference of one class of indebtedness over another, which is legitimate in the case of a party honestly struggling to pay all creditors and favoring most those who afford him the greatest assistance in meeting his aggregate liabilities. This preference would force all creditors to pursue a liberal course, and to invest their warrants in the time notes of the city.

The efforts which have already been made to relieve the city from embarrassments can only be described as feeble and insufficient. It is time that some masculine intellect and energetic will should be brought to bear, to save the city from bankruptcy. We want practical measures and honest effort, instead of feeble and halting expedients, and parsimony and narrow thrift, which it would be a gross misnomer to call economy.

TENNESSEE LEGISLATURE.

FEBRUARY 4.—In the Senate, a buncombe bill was introduced by Patterson, giving every honorably discharged soldier in Tennessee, who served in the Federal army, $100, which passed the first reading. The recollection of the war is a godsend to these patriotic gentlemen, whose political capital "hath this extent—no more."

The resolution rescinding the resolution to pay the members on a specie basis was called up and an amendment offered by Mr. Keith, not allowing pay during the holidays.

Senator Matthews offered a bill in lieu, to the effect that in February, 1867, the Legislature passed a law fixing the salary of members at $5 per day, and that the Constitution forbids the Legislature to fix its own per diem, and that as that Legislature did receive the benefit of their own legislation, thus increasing their per diem $1 60 per day, and that the members of that Legislature be required to refund the $1 60 per day illegally drawn, and that the members of the present Legislature be paid according to the law of February, 1867. On motion, the resolution, amendment and bill in lieu were laid on the table; and as stealing is the order of the day, and this Legislature has as much right as the last, it may as well lie there.

A resolution requesting the Adjutant General to furnish arms, ammunition and transportation to the posse raised by Sheriff Tarkington to enforce the laws in Dyer county, was passed by the following vote:

Ayes—Messrs. Aldridge, Eckel, Eaton, Fuson, Garner, Henderson, Keith, Lindsley, Mathews, Wisener and Wyatt—11.

Nays—Messrs. Cate, Elliott, Frierson, Lyle, McCall, Patterson and Mr. Speaker Senter—7.

[This whole thing is a party move to enable Tarkington to get himself re-elected sheriff of Dyer county, which he became satisfied he could not be without a posse (raised in Nashville.)

The Dyersburg Gazette informed us that "Sheriff Tarkington, becoming frightened at a shadow, skeedaddled from home and has not been heard from for several weeks. His creditors, growing uneasy, have levied some seven or eight attachments on his property and the gentlemen on his bond are becoming somewhat anxious for a showing of hands?"

[Tarkington has been busy in getting his Radical friends in the Legislature to raise a fund that he may apply to those attachments.]

An act compelling clerks to pay over money arising from the sale of real estate was registered on the third reading.

In the House, a resolution that members should draw no pay during the adjournment from the 6th to the 8th, was laid on the table. [The Rads want the money though they are absent. The State would save money by adopting a similar rule for the rest of the session.]

House bill No. 350, authorizing the sale of the Memphis, Clarksville and Louisville railroad. The 9th section of the bill was stricken out, and the bill passed second reading and was ordered to be printed.

The bill to provide for the election of a Clerk for the Law Court of Memphis, etc., was passed.

TENNESSEE ITEMS.

—The Nashville Gazette of the 5th says: "The Sheriff of Dyer county has succeeded in raising his posse of men, and it is understood, will make a reconnoisance in force for the rebellious settlement to-day."

—Both Houses of the Legislature on Tuesday adjourned until Saturday, in order to give the members so desiring, an opportunity of attending the meeting of the Army of the Cumberland, which takes place in Cincinnati.

—On Monday night, thieves made a raid on the premises of Mr. Donald Clark, about three miles from Nashville, and stole a valuable iron gray horse and two mules.

—Brownlow's Whig of the 5th comes to the relief of Maj. Brooks, Paymaster, whose absence is suspected to have been caused by defalcation. It says: "The Governor had told the editor in person, the week before this notice appeared, that Brooks' account with the State was all right, and that he was prepared to settle with the State at any time, and show to the world that all was right."

—One of the most destructive fires that have ever visited Knoxville occurred on Monday morning about one o'clock, breaking out in the store of A. Kennedy, Jr., on Main street, and spreading rapidly until the corner building, recently occupied by the Exchange and Deposit Bank, the storehouse of Cruze & Nelson, the drug store of McClannahan & Brooks, the office of Dr. A. B. Tadlock, and of Logan & Logan, were all entirely consumed. The utmost exertion was required to save the Franklin House, the roof being in flames several times. The Courthouse was at one time in imminent danger, and the matter was seriously discussed of removing the important records from the public offices. The damage is variously estimated at from fifty to sixty thousand dollars, upon which there were policies of insurance amounting to seventeen thousand dollars. The fire is thought to have originated from a coal oil lamp left burning on the counter in the store, with the wick turned down very low—the most dangerous condition in which a lamp could be left—as the blaze is either conveyed beneath the burner, or the heat is so conveyed that the inflammable gas generated there easily explodes.

—It has been ascertained that the amount of back taxes due the city of Nashville is $177,425 95, a portion of which was assessed over ten years ago.

—The house of John B. Padgett, Clerk of the Maury County Court, which was destroyed by fire last Monday morning, was valued at $7000, on which there was no insurance. Only a small portion of the furniture was saved. The fire originated from a spark falling on the roof.

—On Barton's creek, in Dixon county, is a vein of mineral which, being smelted, yielded a white metal which is unknown to those who have examined it.

GEORGIA ITEMS.

—The Atlanta Intelligencer of the 4th inst, says: A rencontre occurred in the supper-room of the American Hotel last evening, between C. C. Richardson, member of the Convention, and Capt. E. McBarron Timmoney, an ex-Federal officer, engaged here in disinterring the Federal dead, in which the former received a pistol shot in the right breast.

—The "carpet-baggers" are making great effort to induce Gen. Meade to put the patronage of the municipal government of Savannah in their hands.

—The Columbus Sun says: Old Markham, of Atlanta, has declined to be Governor of Georgia. Farrow, Akerman, Garnett, Andrews and Bullock all desire to be. The nominating Convention of the mulattoes has been postponed.

—Gen. Meade and staff left Atlanta for Montgomery, on the 3d inst., and were to go thence to Mobile, to remain in Alabama until the close of the election.

—Mr. Womack and Egbert Whitley, both of Walton county, had a difficulty in Monroe, on the 28th ult., in which the former lost his life. Pistol shots were exchanged, but the damage sustained by Whitley was slight. The difficulty grew out of Whitley's being prosecuted for some violation of law, in which Womack testified against him. The last words of the deceased were: "Killed for telling the truth." Whitley was at once arrested, and now remains in prison.

SPECIALS TO APPEAL.

WASHINGTON.

Special Dispatch to Memphis Appeal.]

WASHINGTON, February 7.—The extraordinary course pursued by Secretary Seward to-day at the Executive Mansion, in refusing all the representatives of the press to witness the presentation of Mr. Thornton, the new British Minister, is the subject of severe criticism. The President had intimated that he would probably not confine his remarks to the text of the formal speech which had been prepared for him at the State Department, and that he had no objection to being fully reported. Just as the ceremony of the presentation was about to commence, the correspondents were astonished to find themselves notified through Mr. Seward's orders to leave the premises—a copy of the formal speeches being at the same time placed in the hands of the Associated Press agent. It is therefore not known what President Johnson did say in response to Mr. Thornton, nor is it known why Mr. Seward desired any concealment, unless it was that he coveted the exclusive use of the President's diplomatic thunder to be distributed hereafter to the people through pondrous volumes from the State Department.

A Radical Senator went so far this morning as to say that Gen. Wisewell's confirmation as Commissioner of Internal Revenue depended upon the question whether making A. Rollins a martyr would aid the good cause in the Granite State.

Gen. N. P. Banks has been confined to his room by sickness for several days, but expects to be able to be in his seat on Thursday next to close the debate on his bill for the protection of naturalized American citizens while in foreign countries. He will resist all efforts to amend, believing as he does that the bill as it now stands will bring England and the United States to an issue at once, which may result in some practical good, while high sounding generalities will only defeat the great purpose he had in view.

The House Judiciary Committee met this morning and commenced the investigation of the allegations made some time ago in a paper in this city against one of the Justices of the Supreme Court, for language said to have been used by him concerning the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts of Congress. The only witness summoned for to-day was the editor of the paper in which the charge first appeared. He was questioned as to his authority for the statement, and also as to the name of the Justice alluded to in the article. To the first inquiry he is said to have refused an answer, alleging that it is a rule of the paper with which he is connected that authors of articles appearing therein shall not be be made known outside of the office. In reply to the second question he said he did not know the name of the Judge alluded to. It was finally agreed that he should have further time in which to consider whether or not he would answer the question put to him. The Committee will meet again on Monday, when the same witness is notified to appear.

The House Committee on Military Affairs discussed, without coming to any conclusion, the bill regulating the appointment of paymasters to fill vacancies in the regular army. The chief feature of the bill is, that it provides that all appointments of paymasters to fill vacancies in the regular army shall be made from paymasters of volunteers who have been longest in service. The Chairman was authorized to report a bill repealing the proviso to the second section of the act for the relief of certain drafted men, approved February 28, 1867. The proviso is to the effect that the act shall apply only to claims received at the War Department prior to its passage. Under the bill agreed upon by the committee, all drafted men who paid commutation and were required to furnish a substitute just previous to the close of the war, and which service was not necessary, are entitled to have three hundred dollars refunded to them. They are allowed two years in which to establish their claims.

The McCardle case came up in the Supreme Court this morning, when Judge Sharkey appeared and continued the argument in behalf of the plaintiff, and against the motion to dismiss the case on the ground of want of jurisdiction. He was followed by Senator Trumbull, who closed the argument. The basis of his argument, which occupied over an hour and a half, was, that neither the Constitution of the United States, nor the status of Congress made in pursuance thereof, conferred jurisdiction upon the Supreme Court over cases of this character. He defended the constitutionality of the reconstruction acts, and contended that Gen. Ord, in arresting McCardle, acted under and in conformity with these acts. The case is now submitted for decision on a motion to dismiss for want of jurisdiction. The decision will probably be given next week. Should the Court overrule the motion, the case will come up for argument next March, but if they agree to it there is an end of the matter.

Dickens, accompanied by Dolby and Osgood, visited the White House this morning, and was presented to the President, with whom he had a few moments chat. He spent sometime in inspecting the various rooms and the conservatory. Tobacco spit this time did not soil the carpet, but the spittoons, both big and little, scattered around, attest that our people have been insensible to the force of spitting, to which the great satirist subjected them. He was introduced to a number of newspaper gentlemen, assembled to get the facts about Mr. Thornton's reception, and his presence created quite a sensation among the ladies who thronged the ante-room to catch sight of Her Majesty's minister, but who felt largely compensated by catching a glimpse of Her Majesty's famous subject.

Since the reported resignation of Chas. Francis Adams, a very bitter feeling towards him has manifested itself among his old political associates in Congress. They charge him with having asserted their proceedings as unconstitutional and revolutionary, and with having also advised with his son during his late canvass in Massachusetts. Rads say he could not be confirmed for the State Department even if nominated by Mr. Johnson.

As an impression seems to prevail in many quarters that the President's message on the suspension of Mr. Stanton and the reports of Senators Howard and Doolittle on the same question are public documents, it may be well to say that is not the fact. The injunction of secrecy has been removed from all those papers, but they have not been printed by the Senate for general distribution.

The Committee on Reconstruction did not have a meeting this morning, as was reported they would at their last meeting. They adjourned to meet to-morrow, at which time they will receive and consider the report of Messrs. Bingham and Boutwell, of the Sub Committee, appointed to ascertain if any ground for impeachment can be found in the recent correspondence of President Johnson with Gen. Grant. It is understood that Mr. Bingham considers there is some ground for impeachment in the correspondence, while Mr. Boutwell is ready to report articles of impeachment at once.

The Cabinet had a brief session to-day. Secretary McCulloch was not present, he still being confined to the house from the effects of the injuries he received several days since, by falling down the steps of the Treasury building.

Gov. James English, of Connecticut, is here, and is stopping at the Metropolitan.

—A. R. Griffith, clerk of Williamson, Brothers & Co., Cincinnati, was arrested on the 4th for embezzling $36 30.

A letter was submitted from Headquarters, declining to comply with said request.

A resolution that the per diem of members shall cease after the forty-fifth day of the session, was tabled.

The Hybrid Convention---They Cut and Thrust---The Minority Report on the Penitentiary---The Secretary Tries to Squelch It, but Fails.

Special Dispatch to Memph's Appeal.]

LITTLE ROCK, February 7.—The Convention met at the usual hour. Pointed cuts and thrusts were made between Brooks, Cypert and others, in relation to the proceedings, which Cypert desired corrected so that it would appear that the minority report on the Penitentiary, by Mason and White (negroes), was presented and laid upon the Secretary's table. Brooks contended that the report was not presented until after the motion to adjourn was entertained, and appealed to White (negro), who stated that he did present the report before the motion to adjourn was made. Gantt said his rights had been abridged on attempting to read the report at the Secretary's table. The Secretary took it from him and put in the drawer, which was an attempt to squelch the report, because it was the minority report of negro members, which would probably reveal some truthful operations of the penitentiary not set forth in the majority report.

Considerable feeling was elicited from both sides of the house; finally the proceedings were corrected.

The minority was read, and made, with the majority report, the special order for next Tuesday. This occupied nearly all morning. Adjourned.

FROM BOSTON.

BOSTON, February 7.—The third day's session of the National Chamber of Commerce was mainly devoted to the reports of committees.

Gen. Woodbridge presented the report of the Committee on a National Chamber of Commerce.

Tate, of Louisville, offered the following, which was unanimously adopted:

Resolved, That this Convention has heard with deep sympathy accounts of the destitution and suffering existing in the South, and would earnestly express the hope that Congress in its wisdom will devise such means as will without loss to the Government stimulate the industry and speedily and conveniently restore prosperity in that section of the country.

CONGRESSIONAL.

SENATE.

WASHINGTON, February 7.—Terry introduced a bill in addition to the "Act to establish a uniform system of Bankruptcy." Referred to the Judiciary Committee.

The Senate then took up Patterson's, of New Hampshire, substitute, reported from the Committee on Retrenchment, "for an act in addition to the act regulating the tenure of certain offices."

After several verbal amendments, Cameron moved to strike out the proviso "and the existing Secretary of State is to appoint five special agents," which, after a debate, was lost by a vote of six to thirty. Smart offered a proviso that "the names of, and amounts paid sub agents, shall be reported to the Senate at the commencement of each session."

Sherman, Anthony and Henderson opposed stating the amount, which was lost.

Howard moved a further amendment, by including railroad commissioners in its provisions.

Morton moved to add an additional section authorizing the President to appoint Indian agents for Iowa, Dakotah and Montana, with authority to discontinue them at any time, which, after a debate, was adopted.

Hendricks moved to strike out section 38, providing for discontinuing all such offices ten days after the passage of the act, and requiring their appointment and confirmation by the Senate, without special action. The order was postponed.

Sherman gave notice that he would call up the funding bill on Tuesday next.

Henderson introduced a bill to create an Indian department, and to provide for its government and civilization of the Indians. Also, by request, he read a bill to order a more efficient conduct of Indian affairs. Both were referred to the Committee on Indian affairs.

On motion of Anthony, the Senate provided for an adjournment until Monday.

Anthony then called up the resolution to print 10,000 copies of the reports on the Stanton matter, accepting an amendment by Buckalew to incidde the President's message.

After a debate the resolution was adopted by 27 to 12.

The bill in addition to the tenure of office bill was again taken up. The question was on Henderson's amendment to strike out the third section, which was lost.

Cole moved to strike out "100 days" and insert thirty days instead, as the time at which the offices are to be declared vacant, and no further appointments shall be made without the consent of the Senate.

The amendment was agreed to, and the bill then passed by 32 to 9.

The bill was published yesterday. It now authorizes twenty-five special agents, each to be appointed by the Secretary of State, the Treasurer, the Postmaster General, with twenty-five additional in the Treasury Department, with five by the Secretary of State.

HOUSE

Price, from the Pacific Railroad Committee, reported a bill restoring the lands to the market along the line of the Pacific railroad and its branches, which passed. The bill provides that nothing in the act of July 1st, 1862, or the acts amendatory thereof, shall be held to authorize the withdrawal or exclusion from settlement or entry under the provisions of the Preemption and Homestead laws the even number of sections along the route of such roads, provided they be valued at $2 50 per acre, and be subject only to entry under these laws. It also directs the Secretary of the Interior to restore to homestead, pre-emption entry, all even number sections of land belonging to the Government, and now withdrawn from the market on both sides of the Pacific railroad and its branches, wherever they shall be definitely located.

Spaulding, from the Committee on Appropriations, reported a bill for appropriations for the service of the Columbia Institute for the deaf and dumb, which was made the special order for Tuesday.

The House then proceeded to the consideration of business of a private character.

Parham, from the Committee on Invalid Pensions, reported a large number of bills granting pensions to soldiers and the widows and orphans of soldiers. Passed.

After the morning hour, Poland, of Vermont, offered a resolution for a new drawing of the seats on Monday, on the ground that when the drawing for seats for this Congress in March last took place, there were six States not represented. The proposition created a considerable breeze and opposition.

Spaulding observed that if there was to be a new shuffle and deal every time other States were admitted, there would be the same work in a fortnight hence, when the Representatives from Alabama are admitted.

The resolution was finally adopted by yeas, 86; nays, 74.

To-morrow's session will be devoted to general debate.

Wilson, of Iowa, rising to a personal explanation, said he knew nothing of the views of Justices Field, Davis or Chase on the subject of the reconstruction acts.

The House then went into a Committee of the Whole, and resumed the consideration of the legislative and judicial appropriation bill.

A long and animated discussion arose on the question of adding an appropriation for the Congressional employees, for the twenty per cent. additional allowed last year, and which is omitted in the bill as reported. Finally, by adding the twenty per cent. clause to the employees of the Senate, it was passed by a vote of 87 to 36.

Maynard moved to strike out the item "for the Congressional Globe," which was negatived.

Farnsworth moved to strike out the item of "$3500 for packing boxes for Senators." Agreed to. He also moved to strike out the "miscellaneous item of $2500." Agreed to.

Maynard moved that the paragraph in the bill requiring the Secretary of War to detail a military guard to act in place of the Capitol Police, was independent of legislation, and therefore not required in the bill.

The paragraph was then struck out.

Coburn moved an amendment that the debates of the House shall henceforth be printed at the public printing office.

Washburne, of Illinois, made a point of order, that the amendment proposed is independent of legislation. The Chairman sustained the point.

Maynard said the object could be obtained by striking out the appropriation for the Globe.

After some discussion this was rejected and the committee then rose.

McClung, from the Committee on Southern Railroads, made a report, which, with a view to the minority report to be submitted by Chandler, were both ordered to be printed.

FROM NEW ORLEANS.

NEW ORLEANS, February 7.—In Special Order 27, dated yesterday, Gen. Hancock, for the more complete and efficient protection of the northwestern province of Texas, orders the establishment of four new military posts, to be named Fort Concho, Griffin, Richardson and Burnham, subject to the approval of the Secretary of War. Gen. Hancock orders the work on these posts pushed forward as rapidly as possible by the Quartermaster's Department until completed.

The Convention devoted the greater part of to-day's session in discussing the ordinance repealing the law passed by the Legislature authorizing the issue of four millions levee bonds. The discussion was very excited and disorderly. The whole matter was finally indefinitely postponed.

The following was issued this evening:

HEADQUARTERS 5TH MILITARY DISTRICT, NEW ORLEANS, February 7, 1868.
Special Order No. 28.

[EXTRACT.]

For proceeding to hold an election for Recorder of the Second District of the city of New Orleans, in contempt of orders from these headquarters, the following members of the Boards of Aldermen and Assistant Aldermen of the city of New Orleans, who voted for the resolution against the military appointments, are hereby removed, viz: James Graham, F. E. Dumas, Jno. C. Clay of the Board of Aldermen, and A. Mary, A. Thesan, O. J. Dunn, S. Straight, B. F. Joubert and C. S. Sauvinet of the Board of Assistant Aldermen. I. N. Lee, Robt. J. Watson and Guy Duplantier are hereby appointed members of the Board of Aldermen, and Williamson Smith, Geo. Urquhart, J. H. Moore, P. H. Morgan, Chas. Leaumont and J. S. Whittaker appointed members of the Board of Assistant Aldermen. E. H. Oglesby is appointed a member of the Board of Assistant Aldermen, in place of C. L. Gumbel, resigned. Upon accepting these appointments, the above named persons will transmit to these headquarters a copy of the oath prescribed by law.

By command of Maj. Gen. Hancock.

GEO. L. HARTSUFF,
Assistant Adjutant General.

FROM WASHINGTON.

WASHINGTON, February 7.—The new British Minister, Mr. Thornton, was introduced to the President to day by the Secretary of State. In the course of his reply to Mr. Thornton's pleasant address, said: "The people of the United States will believe Her Majesty entirely sincere in the message which, under her command, you have delivered; and this belief will encourage them to hope for a speedy and amicable adjustment of the differences between Her Majesty's Government and the Government of the United States."

Judge Sharkey to-day, in the Supreme Court, opposed the motion heretofore made to dismiss the McCardle case for want of jurisdiction. Senator Trumbull delivered a long argument in behalf of the Government and in favor of the motion. The Court reserves its decision.

A movement is on foot for a call for a National Convention, at Cincinnati, to represent the producing interests of the United States. It will be somewhat political in character as well as material, it being the intention of the Convention to place the Government and its policy under the control of the producing interest. It is to be called under the auspices of the National Cheap Freight Railway Leagues, and a candidate for President and Vice President will without doubt be put in nomination, who will represent the interests of the producers.

Secretary McCulloch is still confined at his house by his injuries, and will not be at his post until Monday.

ARRESTED.—Mr. J. H. Taffe, who was charged with shooting at Mr. J. C. Lanier, was arrested yesterday and released upon his own recognizance, Mr. Lanier not desiring to prosecute.

GAVE BONDS.—The two men named W. M. Clark and Tom Curlin, charged with stealing Fred Warter's cow on the 6th, gave bonds to Justice Helmrich yesterday for their appearance before him on Monday next.

RECOVERED.—The cow lost by the widow of the late Thos. Malone, was recovered yesterday by Capt. Simons and restored to her owner. The thief was not arrested.

A BURGLARY.—The residence of Mrs Campbell, 209 Vance street, was entered by some thieves yesterday morning, when a large quantity of bedding and wearing apparel was stolen. The rascals got off with their ill-gotten gains.

WE would advise our friends having spare change, to deposit the same with Joe Locke, the popular newsdealer, at No. 22 Jefferson street, in exchange for novels, magazines, cards, stationery, etc., etc.

PERSONAL.—Capt. W. L. Barne, formerly connected with the Press of Nashville, paid us a visit yesterday, and left on the Olive Branch for the Crescent City. We hope to greet him again ere long.

HORSE AND BUGGY.—A very valuable black horse and buggy, worth one thousand dollars, was recovered yesterday by Capt. Simonds, of the First District. The team was found in the possession of a negro, and is held for a claimant.

HARBINGER OF SPRING.—"The Spring time is coming;" so a friend remarked to us yesterday morning. He said he had not heard the sweet singing of the birds, or noticed the budding of the trees, but the presence of a hand organ grinding some worn out airs fully satisfied him that the backbone of the dreary winter was broken.

ATTEMPT AT ROBBERY.—Wm. Johnson, one of the colored persuasion, was found in the room of Mr. A. L. Whiteside, over the store of Vesey & Cartwright, on Main street, yesterday morning, with a carpet-sack filled with clothing not his own. The accused was taken before Justice Gibson, and in default of two thousand dollars bail was sent to the Criminal Court for trial.

RUN OFF.—Two young men hired two saddle horses at Joyce's stable, on Adams street, Thursday evening, for a couple of hours, but failed to return at the appointed time. The last heard of them they were about fifteen miles distant from the city on the Pigeon Roost road. The boys seem to be having a frolic, and Joyce thinks he has lost two animals.

A DISHONEST SERVANT.—Complaint was made at the Police office yesterday by Mr. F. D. Wedgewood, who resides near the mouth of Wolf river, that a negro boy named Charlie, who had been for some time in his employ, had stolen from under his pillow a pocket book containing about twenty-five dollars in currency. He was traced to town, but the trail was lost.

STOCK STOLEN.—Mr. F. M. Yorkington, who resides about four miles from Collierville, complains that he lost two brown horses and a sorrel mule on the night of the fourth. The animals were traced to within a short distance of this city, but have not yet been found. On the sixth a dark bay mare mule was stolen from Jackson Taylor two miles from town on the Horn Lake road. No trace.

DEMOCRATIC CONVENTION.—A meeting of the Conservative citizens of the Third ward was held last night at the engine house, corner of Second and Adams streets. The meeting having been called to order by M. D. L. Stewart, W. C. Anderson was called to the chair and Mr. W. C. McClure elected secretary. On motion the following gentlemen were selected the committee to draft resolutions expressing the sense of the ward in reference to the coming campaign. The following gentlemen were nominated and elected as delegates to the Convention: Peter Connelly, Peter Wrenn, W. C. McClure and — Waldraven. As alternates the following were elected: Col. F. A. Tyler, John Gunn, J. J. Worsham and David Newell. M. D. L. Stewart moved that a committee of five be appointed as a club for the purpose of watching the interests of the ward. Carried. The committee consists of Col. F. A. Tyler, Gen. J. F. Sale, Mr. Peter Connelly, M. D. L. Stewart and Luis Ames. The meeting was addressed by Col. John Bullock, W. J. Stewart, Esq., D. R. Grace and other gentlemen. No further business, the meeting adjourned.
W. C. ANDERSON, Chair'n.
W. C. MCCLURE, Sec'y.

WITHOUT THE PALE.—A day or two since, Judge Pierce of the Common Law Court gave orders that the list of cases for trial, numbering about nine hundred, should be published for public information (this was right and proper.) As the case would have to bear the expense, the Clerk of the Court was instructed to confer with Mr. Barbour Lewis as to what papers it should be published in. Of course he named the Post. Judge Pierce desired that the list be published in the morning papers. The great Judge of the august body known as the County Court, named the Bulletin, and shut out the Avalanche and APPEAL. We care nothing for the patronage of this mongrel organization, but desire that our readers shall have the latest information upon all subjects. The time will probably come when nigger loving oily Barbour, the sweet scented J. B. and Jim Tom will not control the publication or proceedings of all the Courts in Memphis.

A CORRECTION.—In our article yesterday morning, in reference to the shooting affair in the Bethel Block, we stated that Joe Musso, Jr., who was in company with Mr. Taffe, desired him not to interfere with Mr. Ed. Bayliss. We are advised that no such conversation took place. Our informant must have been in error. Mr. Musso was only present by accident, and alleges that he did not propose or wish to be a party to any difficulty, and that as far as he knew none was sought. While we desire to state facts we do not want to do injustice to friend or foe, (if we have any of the latter), and if, inadvertently, we make a mistake we will always correct it with pleasure. Our feelings toward Mr. Musso are of the most kindly character, and we regret that the occurrence should have taken place, and predict that this will be the last of it.

EMMONS & SON, No. 10 Jefferson street, and 393 Main street, have received New York Clipper, Irish American, Littell's Living Age, News from Ireland, Criminal Zeitung, Turf, Field and Farm, Emerald, Records, Pleasant Hours for March, American Artisan, Boston Pilot, Kelly's Weekly, Banner of Light, Sunday Times, Chimney Corner, Sporting Times, Albums, Waverly Magazine, and dailies from everywhere; also a lot of new Valentines received. Now is your time to buy one for your sweethearts from fifteen dollars down to ten cents. The reason everybody goes to Emmons & Son, they know that they can get the worth of their money.

A MODEL EPISTLE.—In a neighboring city it is told that a country gentleman sent to his "friend" certain goods. The merchant received the articles, sold them as requested, being "in a tight" used the money for his own purposes, then broke, whereupon he wrote thusly to his afflicted countryman: "Dear Friend: I acknowledge I spent your money. I feel that my God has forgiven the sin, and I trust you will, as I've taken the benefit of the bankrupt act. Affectionately, Your Friend." What action has been taken is not yet told.

AMUSEMENTS.

MR. FORREST'S SPARTACUS.—The theater last night was densely crowded in every part—the largest audience that ever graced the house, and the most brilliant, from the number of elegantly attired ladies. It was a most suitable demonstration on the last night of Mr. Forrest's appearance, and there was not one present who was not riveted as it were by the intense interest of the play, and the grandeur of Mr. Forrest's "Spartacus." To attempt a description of the character as it passed in review, would tax all our powers, even with an abundance of leisure, and with fresh memories crowding upon us, it is impossible to grasp any particular features where all was so grand. The contrast presented of "Thrace" before and after the iron heel of Rome had trodden down her people; parting with "Pharsarius," the return of the discomfited "Thracian," from the field of defeat, and the reluctant forgiveness wrung from fraternal love; and the breaking heart and wandering faculties under the affliction of slaughtered wife and child, were all so perfect in their delineation as to absorb and almost bewilder the audience. The part of "Pharsarius" was admirably represented by Mr. Hill. The horrid spectacle of Roman butchery was thrillingly portrayed, and made one shudder. Miss Lillie as "Senona" was very gentle, graceful and natural, and Mrs. Allen as "Julia" threw into the character all the earnestness that could be desired. She received such spontaneous applause as must have been very grateful. Mr. Forrest, and compagnon de voyage will leave the city for St. Louis on the afternoon train, and after fulfilling an engagement there will proceed to Cincinnati.

NEW MEMPHIS THEATER—ADMIRAL SEMMES' LECTURE.—This evening, the theater being engaged for the purpose, Admiral Semmes will deliver a lecture upon the "Cruise of the Alabama." During his residence here, he lectured in the Tabernacle, on the "Legitimacy of the Alabama as a Cruiser," omitting the interesting features of her history, which will be embraced in the proposed lecture this evening. As a portion of the history of the great struggle for independence, the incidents of the "cruise" of this famous vessel cannot fail to interest a large portion of our citizens, who are more familiar with events that transpired on shore, than the many "tales of the sea," in which the Alabama, under her vigorous and vigilant commander, bore so conspicuous a part. Told in his terse yet comprehensive style, the narrative cannot fail to enchain the interest, and impart much knowledge that has heretofore been withheld through the ignorance of writers, or partizan influence. We should like to see the theater crowded on this occasion.

THE BLACK CROOK will be put upon the stage on Monday evening, and the employees who are to figure in it are to have a rehearsal this morning at the usual hour. The McDonough troupe of actors and figurantes were expected last night, and will undoubtedly be on hand Through the next week the theater will be brilliant with the charms of music, dancing, scenic effects and metamorphoses, this being the "Black Crook" par excellence that had such a vigorous run at Niblo's and elsewhere in the principal cities, and "put money in the purse" of so many managers. We trust that Manager Thompson may prove fortunate among the rest.

CONCERT AT THE CASINO.—The German citizens of our city had one of their quiet and pleasant gatherings last night at the Casino Club rooms, on Adams street, when a select and appreciating audience listened to the excellent baritone solo of Mr. Richell, accompanied by Professor Schultze, upon the piano forte, followed by Mr. Miller, who played selections from several operas upon the violin, assisted by Professor Schultze. The song of Mr. Sabatsky drew forth immense applause as usual. The singing of the balance of the performers acquitted themselves very creditably, and everybody at the close wished the concert would be repeated at an early day.

THE VARIETIES.—This place of amusement, near the corner of Washington and Main streets, continues to be well patronized. The best of order is kept and good acting is produced nightly.

FINANCIAL AND COMMERCIAL.

OFFICE OF THE DAILY APPEAL, MEMPHIS, February 7, 1868.

The rapid decline in Scrip during the last week is attributed to the amount held by the Gayoso being forced upon the market. There is no doubt but that bank held a large amount, which it was compelled to sell, but the market has not rallied, nor is it likely to do so until some definite plan is adopted by the city in reference to the indebtedness now outstanding. Several ideas have been suggested, any of which, if adopted, might result well; but it is shrewdly suspected that at least one of the committee of citizens which is to make a report to the meeting to-morrow evening, has an axe to grind for himself or others of a ring, of which he is a very forward member. We wish our readers to understand that we are devoted advocates of any measure which will place the finances of our city in a better condition; but we are not working for any clique. In referring to this matter yesterday, we alluded to the acting Mayor, Mr. J. McDavitt, perhaps leading to an inference on his part, as being too much wedded to his own views, but we had no intention to reflect upon the honesty or comprehensiveness of his opinions. We have since been further informed on the subject, and doubt not he acted in the best faith. As one deeply interested in the city's welfare, he invited the co-operation of leading citizens to relieve the city from the strait in which she labored, and believing that the committee may report, the immediate relief of the city does not seem to form an important, if any, part of its deliberations, but speculations of future policy and action that have no pertinence to the present. Such is the impression, for although it is understood the report has been in print several days, we have not been furnished with a copy, that we might examine its details and be prepared to express an opinion when it shall be read in public. We cheerfully give place to the following letter from Mr. McDavitt:

MAYOR'S OFFICE, February 7, 1868.

Editors Memphis Appeal:

I see in the APPEAL of this morning, in your commercial article, that I am represented to be willing to any plan to relieve the city of its financial embarrassments, provided that plan is my own. The writer of the article intimates that I wish to dictate to the citizen what shall be done, and am unwilling to have anything except under my direction.

There is no occasion for any such charge. I have my own views about the policy of all the plans suggested, and think the one proposed by me to be the best. Other gentlemen in the city, whose opinions as business men are entitled to much consideration, agree with me; and yet a plan was proposed and advocated by others, which differed materially from mine, that met my support. This was the one published in the Avalanche. Had I been so persistent in my dictation as is intimated by the writer of the article referred to, I must reject all plans not originated by myself.

All that I have asked the citizens to do is to act promptly in this matter, and not postpone us by unnecessary delay. The city of Memphis belongs to the people. I have no more interest in it than other tax payers, and have no ambition to serve the public as an officer, and have been induced to do it at the urgent solicitations of prominent citizens. Having given my time, without compensation, I ought not to be recklessly attacked, when I am doing what I think best for the interest of the citizens.

Messrs. Editors, we need money to carry on the government. If we can get the cash for a few months, we can, by proper retrenchment and care, bring the credit of the city to a point that will command the confidence of its creditors at home and abroad. This end is worth a struggle to attain, and all good citizens should unite in an effort to accomplish it.

E. MCDAVITT.

The only noticeable feature in city finances to-day was the amount of cotton paper upon the market. Offerings were large, and except for regular customers, none of our discount houses were buying. The advance in cotton and accumulation of orders has caused considerable activity in the staple, and more exchange has been thrown upon the market than our banks are enabled to take, even were they disposed to do so, at this juncture; but as the minds of the people are becoming quieted, we may look for increased facilities for the removal of cotton daily, until matters again assume the ease of some days ago. The buying rates on New York and other outside points are some lower, being ½ to ¾ discount. Selling at par.

Gold is advancing. The New York market opened at 142¾ and at noon was 142¾, but declined again and closed at 142⅜. Offerings here were small during the day. Buying at 139 to 140¾. No counter demand.

Counter warrants are very dull. Dealers are not willing to buy at any price. Selling at 60 to 65c.

Police scrip is in very light demand. Buying at 80 to 82c. Selling at 85 to 86c.

Of the Talbot issue of old State Bank notes, says the Press and Times, which were tainted by the secession of the State prior to their issue, there are said to be $1,081,599 in circulation. Of the State bank notes issued prior to secession and still in circulation, there are said to be $2,620,106.

Who holds this large amount of uncurrent money? There is certainly but a small proportion of it in Memphis.

The cotton market in Liverpool at the opening this morning was firm—Uplands, 7½ to 8d; Orleans, 8¼ to 8¾d. At noon the market was active—Uplands, 8d; Orleans, 8¾d. At the close it was active, with Uplands, 7¾d, to arrive; sales for the day, 20,000 bales; week's sales, 105,000; to speculators, 9000; for export, 18,000; stock on hand, 340,000 bales, of which 134,000 are American. There are 228,000 bales afloat, of which 135,000 are American. At the opening of the New York market, holders were anticipating an advance and keeping their stocks out of market. Quotations were nominally unchanged. At noon prices were firm and demand fair. At 1 p.m. the demand was good and prices higher—Middlings, 20; Orleans, 20¼c; and closed with an active demand at full prices. Quotations unchanged. Our market was moderately active, but restricted, owing to the difficulty of effecting exchange. Sellers in some cases were disposed to take choice paper with a few days to run, but the majority preferred holding the cotton. Middlings advanced about ½c during the day, and were very firm at the close.

$34,500 IN PREMIUMS.

NUMBER of PRIZES, 595.

CERTIFICATES, $5 EACH.

A Fortune or a Homestead for $5.

CAPITAL PRIZE VALUED AT $20,000 00.

Which amount has recently been offered for the Springs and Grounds immediately surrounding.

PRIZE NO. 1.

The celebrated Raleigh Mineral Springs, situated on the confines of Raleigh, late County Seat of Shelby county, Tenn., nine miles north-east of Memphis, and two miles from Depot or Station on the Memphis and Louisville Railroad. These Springs are rich and unrivalled in various mineral and medicinal qualities, and are visited every Summer by thousands of seekers of health and pleasure, from all quarters of the country. They are within a few minutes walk of the village of Raleigh, in a beautiful valley, and also within a few hundred feet of Wolf river, which rolls around the base of the eminence on which the village of Raleigh is situated, and empties into the "Father of Waters" at Memphis. A notorious remarkable cure of various dis-ases have been experienced by sojourners at this health-inspiring retreat, and the proprietors, Col. J. M. Coleman, can produce hundreds of certificates of cures in cases which had been entirely given over by medical skill. The ground surrounding the Springs, and in fact the entire village of Raleigh, lies on a ridge of pure air, and is as remarkable for its healthfulness as beauty of location. The Springs are in fine order, never failing, and are designated as follows:

MARBLE SPRING,
BOX SPRING,
MAGNOLIA SPRING,
ARSENIC SPRING,
SULPHUR SPRING,
FREESTONE SPRING.

The place has never been visited by persons of any kind, and peculiarly characteristic of its healthfulness is the longevity of the inhabitants. The oldest citizens of Shelby county are residents of Raleigh.

The Springs are much resorted to by pleasure seekers as by invalids, owing to beauty of scenery and various artificial as well as natural attractions. Connected with the Springs are a Pavilion, Ladies' Bowling Alley, Rustic Arbors, Reading Saloon, Gentlemen's Bowling Alley, Saloon, Billiard Room, Gymnasium, Refreshment Tables, etc., while Wolf river affords excellent Boating and Fishing.

The ground accompanying the Springs, in the above scheme and included in the lots, is fifteen acres in extent, overlooking the valley and affords in addition to a magnificent site for a grand hotel and other buildings; splendid facilities for a park, promenades, etc.

An analysis of the several Springs, by distinguished medical men, shows that they are unsurpassed in mineral and medicinal curative properties by any in the United States. There is no reason then why Raleigh should not become as famous as Saratoga, Sharon or Lebanon, and as largely patronized. It needs only capital and enterprise to accomplish this end.

A charter is before the State Legislature for the incorporation of the Springs, and a movement has been inaugurated looking to direct rail communication with Memphis.

For this prize, $20,000 was recently offered, which was declined in order that the above scheme may be fully carried out.

PRIZE NO 2.

The elegant country mansion house and lot residence of Col. J. M. Coleman is within a few minutes walk of the Springs. The house is in first class order, contains 10 rooms and is beautifully covered in shrubbery. The lot is well fenced and ornamented with fine shade and fruit trees, and affords all necessary outhouses, cisterns, etc. It is situated between the village and Spring Valley, on the main promenade. Value $8000.

PRIZE NO. 3.

One thousand dollars in cash.

PRIZE NO. 4 TO 25.

Twenty-two cottage lots valued at $250 each. These lots are a portion of the village of Raleigh, delightfully situated, all fronting on thoroughfares and will be drawn with the understanding that the winners shall have free access at all times to the Springs and belongings.

Details of the Drawing.

Six thousand and seven hundred tickets, representing the certificates issued, will be placed in one wheel, and the same number of blanks, including twenty five inscribed with the names of the premiums, will be placed in another. From these wheels tickets will be drawn at the same time, and the number drawn will take the premium drawn simultaneously.

All moneys received upon the sale of these shares will be placed in the German National Bank of Memphis, and will remain there to be credit of the Association until the drawing takes place.

KAVANAGH & DECKER'S

BILLIARD TABLES

THE most reliable Cushion used on Billiard Tables is the

Cat-Gut Cushion,

Manufactured by KAVANAUGH & DECKER, and patented December 18, 1866. (See Scientific American, Vol. 16, No. 11.)

It is the only Cushion that possesses all the qualities essential to a Perfect Cushion. It is the most elastic and most durable Cushion ever offered to the billiard-playing public, and is so abundantly proven by the great demand for it as soon to render further mention unnecessary. The peculiarity which distinguishes the Cat-Gut Cushion and renders it superior to all others is the tightened cord of cat-gut which overlies the face and back of the rubber and running the full length of the table, thereby preventing the ball from passing into the rubber and jumping from the tables edge, thus rendering the cushion also adamanteen to the elasticity of the Cushion.

The cat-gut Cushion has already been applied to over 100 tables, which is ample evidence of its merit.

It can be applied to tables of any make, for $75 per set.

Cavanagh & Decker's Factory, at the corner of Centre and Canal streets, N. Y., is the most complete of the kind in the world. The machinery is of the most improved character, the number of hands the largest in the United States, the material used the best that can be purchased, and the workmen thoroughly skilled.

Billiard Cloth, Balls, Cues and Trimmings, all of the best make, constantly on hand.

Kavanagh & Decker are the only agents in this country for Kay's Cue Cement, adjudged by competent authorities to be the best Cement ever used.

Full size Tables cut down for $100.

Our Latest Improved NEW SCALE PIANO-FORTE.

GROVESTEEN & CO.,

499 Broadway, N. Y.,

THESE instruments, after the most flattering testimonials from the first Pianists in the country, who, at our solicitation, have tested them in the severest manner possible, have been pronounced THE FINEST SQUARE PIANO FORTE MADE IN THE WORLD.

It has always been our policy, during the thirty-six years that we have manufactured Pianos, twelve thousand of which are now in use in the United States and Europe, to give the finest instrument at the lowest cost. Our superior facilities enable us to offer them from one to three hundred dollars less than any other first Class House.

The tone of these instruments are remarkable for their peculiar Sweetness and Great Brilliancy, never losing their quality when forced to their utmost capacity. The wood, by a new process of seasoning, does not destroy the middle and upper registers by mingling with them in disagreeable confusion, the refined beauty of tone being equally delightful to the unpractised and to the most cultivated ear.

They are an entirely new style of Piano, finished in the most superb manner, with four full round corners front and back, heavily carved legs and lyre serpentine base richly moulded, and each instrument is fully warranted for five years. sep8 dly

MEMPHIS APPEAL.

BY TELEGRAPH.

Noon Dispatches.

MONTGOMERY, February 7.—The extension of the election till Saturday was due to the representations from this point made at Washington. Meade will arrive here to-morrow. The vote is still light, and without fraud the constitution cannot possibly be carried. Meade wishes separate elections on the constitution and officers under it, but Grant ordered him not to interfere. In South Alabama the heavy negro portion is voting light. North Alabama has not been heard from. Three thousand six hundred negroes out of 6500 have voted to date in this county, the Radical stronghold in the State. Thirty thousand votes have been cast in this State so far, but 80,000 are necessary to carry the ratification. Several attempts were made to-day to stuff the ballot boxes; but being detected by the challengers, the bogus votes were thrown out.

NEW YORK, February 7.—An Atlanta special to the Tribune says that Alabama letters and dispatches declare that since the change in commanders and the removal of Swayne the efforts of the military authorities appear to be intended to defeat the constitution. A new registration board, hostile to the constitution, had been appointed at Selma. Freedmen registrars refused to serve on such board. The registrars had been instructed to change all of the rolls which made the election within the time prescribed an impossibility. Hundreds of disqualified persons in North Alabama lately registered in order to count as non-voting in Lowndes county. There was only one place of voting for 500 voters in Elmore county, and but a single ballot box, in charge of rebel judges. In Chambers and many other counties there was no election. It is computed that 20,000 votes are lost to the constitution. Hundreds of freedmen are waiting in rain from day to day to get a chance to vote. No blame is attached to General Meade, whose instructions were liberal and proper. The Superintendent chosen by Col. Hayden ordered the election to be conducted according to the laws of Alabama.

YEDDO, November 27, 1867.—Citizens of the United States are informed that, in conjunction with my colleagues, I have made arrangements by which the city of Yeddo, the town of Negateo, on the west coast, and the harbor of Ebisumerat, on the island of Sado, will be opened to them to trade and residence, pursuant to the sixty stipulation, on the 1st of April next.

(Signed) S. B. VANVALKENBURG, Minister Resident to Japan.

MONTREAL, February 6.—Jas. Henry was buried alive in a coal yard this morning by an excavated coal heap falling on him. He was dug out an hour afterwards, but life was extinct.

OTTAWA, February 6.—Fenders of Dominion stock have come in freely, and it is understood none have been accepted under par.

TORONTO, February 6.—The Seventeenth Regiment, stationed here for the orders, will remove to London. The Highlanders, at present at Montreal, will supply its place.
